Differs With Booker Washington.

'The Negro Problem of Today'' was given yesterday by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Weaver, of Baltimore, at the meeting of the Presbyterian Ministers' Association. Dr. Weaver is a colored man and a member of the Presbyterian board of missions of freedmen. He advocated a policy different from that of Booker T. Washington, saying he believed that general Christian education is the greatest need of the negro today, and not "industrial" education. That there are so many negro criminals in large cities, he said, is due in great part to
